

Racism Is Wrong

Everyone has a race. A race is a group of people who share similar inherited physical features, like skin color or facial features.

Racism is thinking one skin color is better than other skin colors.

Racism is wrong.

Racism is telling jokes about someone's race.

Racism is not kind.

Racism is teasing a person because of their race.

Racism is not fair.

Racism is bullying or hurting a person because of their race.

Racism is not right.

Racism is judging someone because of their race.

Racism is hurtful.

What can we do? We can speak up when we see or hear about someone being treated unfairly.

We can learn more about racism through books.

We can take time to get to know someone before judging them.

We can celebrate our differences.

You can be the change you want to be in the world. Start today.